Kitchen to Market

Making and selling jams, syrops, pickles, and more!

Are you interested in starting a small food business selling canned, dried, frozen, or baked goods? Already have a small business and ready to start selling off-Reservation? Oregon law allows you to make certain low-risk food items from your farm or kitchen to sell directly to consumers in the state. Join OSU Extension's Food Safety and Security Program Coordinator, Jared Hibbard-Swanson to learn about what products you can make and how you can keep them safe and legal.
